

Toshimi KABEYASAWA is Professor at Earthquake Research Institute, the University of Tokyo. He obtained his Doctor of Engineering at University of Tokyo in 1985. His research interests are in the field of earthquake engineering, building structure, reinforced concrete. He served as a chairman or member of significant professional or academic committees in MLIT, MEXT, MITI, BRI, NIED, RIEF, AIJ, BCJ, JBDPA, JSSI, JEES, GBRC and local governments in Japan. He was the leader for the reconnaissance team of the Architectural Institute of Japan after Kocaeli Earthquake in 1999, which were organized in collaboration with the teams of ITU, METU, BOUN, and KOERI.